

KnightMUN

XVII

Position Guidelines

For KnightMUN XVII, all position papers for General Assembly and Specialized General Assembly committees are expected to follow the following standards.

For delegates in the US Senate committee a position paper can be written in the form of a press release.*

For delegates in the House of Commons Committee a Position paper is not Required.*

- One page, single spaced, for each topic
- Times New Roman 12-point font
- All sources cited in MLA Format
 - Works cited is expected to be at the footer of each page
- Sources are expected to be academic
 - Newspaper/media sources are to be attempted to be kept at a minimum
 - No opinion columns
 - Only one to two sources are expected per topic
- Plagiarism is strictly against conference rules
 - If a paper is found to have been plagiarized, the delegate's advisor will be notified and the delegate will be disallowed from receiving any awards at KnightMUN XVI
- A position paper example is provided on our website for reference
- Any questions about position papers should be initially directed toward your committee chair's email